

Lampe Firm Changes Name to Lampe Financial, LLC

PITTSBURGH, February 2010—The financial-planning firm founded in 1979 by Carol K. Lampe, CFP®, has a new name. Formerly Lampe Asset Management, the firm is now Lampe Financial, LLC.

“The name change seems minor, but it more closely describes the wide range of services we provide,” explained Lampe. “Our purpose is to offer broad, integrated financial support, and the name now reveals this.”

Lampe Financial, LLC provides comprehensive financial planning services to individuals, focusing on asset and risk management, as well as retirement and estate planning. The firm is affiliated with Allegheny Investments, a major regional financial-planning firm based in Pittsburgh.

“The new name both makes service sense,” said Allegheny Senior Vice President David Jeter, CFP®, “and carries on the sterling reputation of the Lampe team.”
